PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED: RETURN WITH US NOW: Dec; article on THIRD MAN...MAGIC SOUNDS, Fall; Chandu log; article on trading video tapes...ILLUSTRATED PRESS, Dec; article on racism in radio.

BOOKS: FASTER THAN A SPEEDING BULLET by Stuart Silver and Isidore Ehiblum; Playboy Paperback; $2.25; informal history and quiz on many early radio shows.

JUST READ VARIETY Jan 8, 1941-35th anniversary edition. Among a lot of interesting reading was an article "The Past-and future-of Transcription" by Charles Gaines, secy, World Broadcasting system. Very informative. Copying had to be done in three parts. If you want a copy send me 30¢ and a SASE.

NEWS OF THE PAST: by Ed Carr; 1939-NAB formed Broadcast Music Inc. as first step in tax-free supply of music...1939-Outstanding new program; Tums' POT OF GOLD with Horace Heidt...Television makes official debut April 30, 1939 via NBC-ROA at World's Fair with telecast of President Roosevelt. FCC later adopts tele-committee report permitting limited commercials.

THE TAPE DECK: Pete Hollis mentions that getting service done to his Akai recorders is extremely slow. If you are thinking of purchasing one, keep this in mind...Milton Pressley, 412 Redbud Ln, Oxford,

IF BOX IS CHECKED, $_.00 IS DUE FOR ANOTHER YEAR

Ms 38655 recommends Wisconsin Discount Stereo for all your tape supplies. Address is 2417 W Badger Rd, Madison, WI 53713. Toll-free # is 1-800-356-9514. Ask for Bill Hue. Prices are very reasonable and shipping is quick. Milton Pressley sells under the name of Heritage Tape. His flyer is enclosed. If readers want to trade he will exchange catalogues (This is the practice of most traders). If you want to buy a 6½ by 9½ envelope with 28c in stamps would be appreciated but is not necessary. Milton has separate catalogues for cassette and reel.

HERE AND THERE: New Addresses; Misty Dawn Lane, 1177 Harrington NE $101, Renton, WA 98055...World Of Yesterday, Rt 3, Box 263H, Waynesville, NC 28786.

The shows were by and about black people. Also wants all AMOS & ANDY shows...Lawence Rao, 1213 E 88th St, Brooklyn, NY 11236 has excellent copy of interview/music remembrance by John Lennon made 6 hours before his death. It was broadcast on WXLO-FM in New York. A copy in full FM-stereo is $10 for reel and $12 for cassette...Lynn Lichty, RR2, Antwerp, OH 45813 still wants Stark Maynard's current address. He will pay $2 to the first person supplying his address...Ken Pabst, 4442 N 77th St, Milwaukee, WI 53218 wants recording of the old Edelweiss Beer commercial...Mike Ogden, 607 Collins Dr, Tallahassee, Fla 32303 wants address of Hohn McIntire and Jeanette Nolan...Tom McFadden, 207 16th Av, Sterling, Ill 61081 wants ARMY HOUR 11/5/44.

RADIO IS ALIVE AND WELL: Bert Parks will emcee RADIO 60-THE DIAMOND JUBILEE commemorating 6 decades of radio on Jan 14th. Guests include Lowell Thomas, Dan Seymour, Henry Morgan, Lanny Ross, Edwin Newman, Jane Pickens. It is part of the International Radio and Television Society's Newsmaker Luncheon series...Rosa Rio and Ted Malone were the subjects of a very interesting article in Jan 4 New Haven Register. Rosa Rio provided background music for Ted Malone's BETWEEN THE BOOKENDS from 1939-1960. Both have been to our convention.

LATE MAIL: Ruth Sandler died Jan 3rd at 66; composer; wrote "I'll Never Smile Again"...Mabel Mercer was honored by ASCAP Jan 5th in the Whitney museum in New York. She is now 81.
